

Contents

Introduction
Keep it Simple
Practise Simplicity and Synergy
Start Where They (and You) Are
How to Use this Guide

CHAPTER 1

What Is Differentiated Instruction

Why Focus on Differentiated Instruction?
The Framework
Misconceptions of Differentiated Instruction
Teaching Adults: What Is Differentiated Instruction
Process: Classroom Walk-Throughs

CHAPTER 2

Start Where YOU Are: Instructional Leadership Beliefs and Knowledge

The Principal as Instructional Leader
Your Instructional Leadership Quotient
Finding Time: Prioritizing the Responsibilities of the Principalship
Make Instructional Leadership a Priority
Plan for Instructional Leadership

CHAPTER 3

Start Where They Are: Characteristics of Adult Learners

Adult Learners
Changing Minds
Supporting Change
Process: Workshop Assessments

CHAPTER 4

Planning Professional Learning

Professional Learning

Working with Data

Process: Creating a Professional Learning Plan

CHAPTER 5

Knowing Your Learners

The Strengths Revolution

Process: Acknowledging Staff Strengths

Teaching Adults: Introduction to Individual Differences and Sense-Based Learning Styles

Teaching Adults: Multiple Intelligences

Teaching Adults: Student Interests

CHAPTER 6

Creating an Effective Learning Community

The Characteristics of a Learning Community

Your Role

Teaching Adults: Classroom Management and Organizational Procedures that Support Differentiation

Teaching Adults: Teacher Presence

Process: Encouraging Reflection

CHAPTER 7

Essential Understandings

Getting to Essential Understandings

Teaching Adults: Essential Curriculum

Teaching Adults: Essential Understandings and Questions

CHAPTER 8

Assessment for Learning (Pre-Assessments)

Pre-Assessing Knowledge and Attitude

Process: Pre-Assessing Teacher Knowledge Using Self-Reports and Quick Writes

Teaching Adults: Using Pre-Assessments to Group for Learning

CHAPTER 9

Powerful Instructional Strategies

Instructional Strategies

Process: Classroom Observation

Teaching Adults: An Introduction to the Top Nine Strategies

Teaching Adults: Similarities and Differences

CHAPTER 10

Appropriate Challenge

Challenging Your Staff

Process: Providing Effective Feedback

Teaching Adults: Vygotsky and the Zone of Proximal Development

Teaching Adults: Providing Feedback

CHAPTER 11

Evaluating Fairly in the Differentiated Classroom

What Matters?

Teaching Adults: Addressing Teacher Concerns

CHAPTER 12

Where Are You Now?

Glossary

Index